FIFTH SEMI-ANNUAL SALE

OF

W. ELLIOT WOODWARD'S

COLLECTION OF

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN

COINS AND MEDALS.

NEW YORK:

J. M. BRADSTREET & SON, STEAM PRINTERS,

No. 247 Broadway.

MOUNT PLEASANT, ROXBURY, MASS.,

September 12, 1864.

Having so frequently, within the last two years, issued Catalogues for "Coin Sales" in New York, it seems almost superfluous to make any remarks by way of explanation or introduction, but to those who have not seen my other Catalogues, a word may not be amiss.

In writing descriptions, a faithful effort has in all cases been made to convey an idea of the exact condition and quality of each piece, and I trust that any failure in that particular will be attributed to want of ability, rather than to any other cause.

In the use of terms, some latitude must be allowed on account of the lack of words to express the shades of meaning, and the same expression may sometimes be differently construed according to circumstances; for instance, a piece coined a hundred years ago may be a brilliant proof, and still not up to the standard of a brilliant proof of 1864; a half dollar of 1794 may be remarkably fine, and yet one of 1795, in the same condition, may properly be described as ordinary; an unimportant token may, if extra fine, be called proof, where a valuable coin in the same condition would only admit of the descriptive word uncirculated perhaps, or very fine. This explanation is not for the experienced collector, but for the neophyte only into whose hands the catalogue may chance to fall.

As soon after the sale as they can be got ready, a few catalogues will be prepared with prices, and forwarded by mail as ordered. The price will be two dollars, which sum is found practically to be no more than an adequate compensation for the clerical labor required, throwing out of the estimate the cost of the catalogue as it comes from the printer: with names of purchasers added, the price will be five dollars—15 copies are printed on large paper, which will be sold at ten dollars each, unpriced.

W. ELLIOT WOODWARD.

ENGLISH MEDALS—Silver.

179. Medal of Mary Queen of Scots. The following description by Mr. Strobridge is copied from the Allan Catalogue, No. 4,447: Obv. The Queen's bust, in rich robes, holding a breviary in her right hand: inscription, "O God, grant patience, in that I suffer Wrang." The rev. has the inscription in parallel lines in the field, "Quha can compare with me in grief? I die and dar not seik releif;" and on the outer circle of the coin, "Hourt not the heart Quhois joy thou art." Size 32. Almost unique, and in beautiful preservation; its weight is about two ounces. The work on the effigy of the Queen is very fine, and altogether the medal is for beauty and rarity quite unequalled.

(At the sale above referred to, I purchased this medal for $130, with the intention of sending it abroad. Not having done so, I now offer it for competition, providing a starting bid is made for it of $150. In case this bid is not made, the piece will be withdrawn, and disposed of as at first intended.)

PRESIDENTIAL AND POLITICAL MEDALS.

The closing numbers refer to the size. In all cases where the number struck is mentioned, the dies have been destroyed; and every piece is original, with the exception of those designated as re-struck, and a few in the mint series of Peace Medals, &c., which are of recent issue. Medals struck from dies which have never before been used, are of course considered as original, whether recent or otherwise, as are medals, though recently struck from combinations of dies such as have never before appeared. Particular attention is requested to this statement.

792. A set of sixteen pieces, "Lovett's Presidential Series," the obverses bearing the busts of the several Presidents, from Washington to Lincoln, the reverses presenting views of their residences, fine proof impressions, copper bronzed, 22.

1418. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling; large tree with few branches, small planchet; very good.

1419. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling; letters in the legend very small; fine and a very rare variety.

1420. 1652 Pine Tree Sixpence; very fine indeed, rare.

1421. 1652 Pine Tree Sixpence: entirely distinct type: remarkably fine, scarcely at all circulated.

1422. 1652 Pine Tree Sixpence; very good.

1423. 1652 Pine Tree Threepence; remarkably fine, almost uncirculated, rare.

1424. Another, good, but not as fine, a different type, rare.

1425. 1652 Pine Tree Threepence; small tree, very fine.

1426. 1652 Oak Tree Shilling; a rare type and remarkably fine; the trunk of the tree is of very large size.

1427. Oak Tree Shilling, a distinct variety, the trunk of the tree being small; large planchet, fine.

1428. 1652 Oak Tree Sixpence; a very rare type; the 2 in the date being reversed, it could, by a very slight alteration, be made to read 1650; a hint is thus afforded concerning the probable origin of the celebrated Pine Tree Shilling, bearing the date of 1650.

1429. 1652 Oak Tree Twopence; rev. reads "Masaatusets," &c.; this piece, very peculiar both in legend and date, is thought to be unique.

1430. 1662 Oak Tree Twopence; very fine, rare.

The following pieces, twenty-seven in number, comprise the entire lot dug up in Roxbury, Massachusetts, in the summer of 1863; an extended account of the discovery may be found in the McCoy Catalogue, page 83; also in an article in the Historical Magazine of last November.

1431. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling, "Masatusets;" the usual type, but a very perfect specimen, being evenly struck and a very fine impression; rare.

1432. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling; tree with wide-spreading crooked limbs; very fine and rare variety.

1433. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling; small size, very fine.

1434. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling; small open tree; scarce type, very fine indeed.

1435. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling; large tree with few limbs, the lower ones bent upward; very fine.

1436. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling; from the same die as the last, and equally fine.

1437. 1652 Pine Tree Sixpence; large size, very fine.

1438. 1652 Pine Tree Sixpence; a smaller size, equally fine.

1439. 1652 Pine Tree Threepence; fine impression, evenly struck.

1440. 1652 Pine Tree Threepence; large size, pierced, otherwise fine.

1441. 1652 Pine Tree Threepence; large letters, fine, rare.

1442. 1652 Pine Tree Threepence; very fine indeed.

1443. 1652 Oak Tree Shilling; large size and very fine.

1444. 1652 Oak Tree Sixpence; very large, well' struck; a remarkably fine specimen.

1445. 1652 Oak Tree Sixpence; a different type, even finer than the last.

1446. 1652 Oak Tree Sixpence; still another type, fine.

1447. 1652 Oak Tree Sixpence; very small tree, large planchet, fine.

1448. 1652 Oak Tree Sixpence; bent as a witch token, very fine as a coin, and doubly interesting from the fact alluded to.

1449. 1652 Oak Tree Sixpence; rev. has "In New England, Ano.;" fine, and a very rare type.

1450. 1652 Oak Tree Sixpence; large size, very fine.

1451. 1652 Oak Tree Threepence; very good and scarce.

1452. 1652 Oak Tree Threepence; about like the last.

1453. 1662 Oak Tree Twopence; very fine, rare.

1454. 1662 Oak Tree Twopence; large size, fine, rare.

1455. 1662 Oak Tree Twopence; another type, very fine.

1456. 1662 Oak Tree Twopence, "New Englnnd;" extremely rare.

1457. 1662 Oak Tree Twopence; small size, very fine.

1458. 1662 Oak Tree Twopence; large size, rare.

1459. James II. Tin Piece, original, very fine and rare.

1460. London Elephant Piece; obv. struck from the same die as the Carolina Cent of 1694; good and very scarce.

1461. Lord Baltimore Sixpence; fine and very rare.

1462. 1721 Colonies Françoises; rev. crown over two L's, crossed; fine and rare.

1463. Rosa Americana Penny, without date; fine and very rare.

1464. 1722 Rosa Americana Penny, in ordinary condition, but rare.

1465. 1722 Rosa Americana Halfpenny, uncirculated, very rare.

1466. 1722 Rosa Americana Halfpenny, "Vtile, Dulci;" fine and a very rare type.

1467. 1722 Rosa Americana Farthing; obv. "Georgius D. G. Rex;" rev. "Ameri;" fine and very rare.

1468. 1722 Rosa Americana Farthing; obv. has "Dei Gratia;" uncirculated, very rare.

1469. 1723 Rosa Americana Penny, crowned rose; uncirculated, splendid, rare.

1470. 1723 Rosa Americana Halfpenny, crowned rose; as fine as the last.

1471. 1723 Rosa Americana Halfpenny; die entirely distinct from the last, almost as fine.

1472. Granby or Higley Copper: obv. three sledge hammers, each surmounted by a crown, "Connecticut, 1737;" rev. a deer standing facing left, "The value of three pence." This beautiful Higley was recently procured from England; it is a fine sample of the rarest variety, and is guaranteed to be genuine.

1473. Granby or Higley Copper; obv. a broad axe, "I cut my way through;" rev. a deer within a circle, "Value me as you please." This is the one purchased by Mr. Bailey in my last sale, and is the best of the variety, known, being not only perfectly uncirculated, but portions remaining bright; excessively rare.

1474. Granby or Higley Copper: similar die, very fine for so rare a piece, though not equal to the last.

1475. 1766 Pitt Token, "No stamps;" copper, very fine and rare.

1476. 1766 Pitt Token; brass, good and very rare.

1477. 1766 Pitt Token, in some light colored metal, resembling silver; very fine and very rare.

1478. 1773 Virginia Halfpenny; small size, uncirculated, rare.

1479. 1773 Virginia Halfpenny; large planchet, uncirculated.

1480. 1773 Virginia Penny; splendid proof, this piece is entirely different from the two last, and of a high degree of rarity, found in but few American collections.

1481. 1774 Virginia Shilling, usually called the Virginia Penny in silver; obv. that of the English Shilling of the period; rev. the same as appears on the Virginia Penny and Halfpenny; of the precise weight and size of an English Shilling of the same date. This piece, with the two last named, constitutes an entire set of the Virginia Coinage, a series which probably exists in only one other collection in the world. This, a splendid proof, one of only two known specimens, was purchased specially for this sale at a price far exceeding that paid for any other coin, the New York Doubloon alone excepted.

1482. 1767 Louisiana Penny: "Sit Nomen Domini Benedictum," with the stamp "R. F.;" rev. sceptres crossed.

1483. 1776 Continental Currency, "Fugio, mind your business;" rev. endless chain of thirteen links, bearing the names of the States, in the centre "American Congress," "We are one;" tin, fine, original and very rare.

1484. Continental Currency, from the same die as the last, struck in brass; this piece has long been known in England, and has always been considered unique, and no doubt is so, being entirely unknown in American collections, extremely fine; cost me seventy-five dollars.

1485. 1781 North American Token; fine, scarce.

1486. 1783 Georgius Triumpho; fine, rare.

1487. 1783 Annapolis Shilling; unusually fine, rare.

1488. 1783 Annapolis Shilling, from a different die, and on a planchet a size larger; fine and extremely rare.

1489. 1783 Annapolis Sixpence; poor, but quite as good as usually met with, very rare.

1490. Annapolis Threepence: fine and extremely rare.

1491. 1785 Immune Columbia, Liberty seated; rev. "Georgius III. Rex," in good condition for this piece, which is never found fine: extremely rare.

1492. 1785 Vermonts Res Publica: very fine, rare.

1493. 1786 Vermontensium Res Publica, with eight trees; fine, and a very rare variety.

1494. 1786 Vermontensium Res Publica, with nine trees; good, rare.

1495. 1786 Vermontensium Res Publica, with eight trees, different from the first described: fine and very rare.

1496. 1786 Vermon Auctori, the "Baby head;" good, rare.

1497. 1786 Vermon Auctori, head of the Connecticut Cent.

1498. 1787 Vermon Auctori, small head, fine.

1499. 1787 Vermon Auctori, resembles the last, but from a different die.

1500. 1687 Vermon Auctori: rev. "Britannia;" fine for this piece, scarce.

1501. 1788 Vermon Auctori; fine, scarce.

1502. 1788 Vermon Auctori, with head of George III.; rev. "Inde. et Lib.;" very fine scarce.

1503. 1788 Vermont Cent, bust "Georgius III. Rex;" rev. "Inde. et Lib.;" fine, scarce.

1504. 1787 Massachusetts Cent, projection from the head of the eagle; very fine, scarce.

1505. 1787 Massachusetts Cent; slight variety, good.

1506. 1787 Massachusetts Half Cent; very fine, uncirculated, rare.

1507. 1787 Massachusetts Half Cent; fine, and a very rare variety.

1508. 1788 Massachusetts Cent; remarkably fine, uncirculated, rare.

1509. 1788 Massachusetts Cent; a variety, almost as fine.

1510. 1788 Massachusetts Half-Cent; very fine, scarcely touched by circulation, rare.

1511. 1788 Massachusetts Half-Cent: very fine, rare.

1512. 1785 Connecticut Cent, very large head, bust in armor: very fine a scarce variety.

1513. 1785 Connecticut Cent, bust in armor, but entirely different from the last; fine, rare.

1514. 1785 Connecticut Cent, negro head; good and very scarce.

1515. 1785 Connecticut Cent, head of Gov. Bradford, not much circulated, but a very weak impression: rare.

1516. 1785 Connecticut Cent, bust in very high relief, from a finer die than any other of this date.

1517. 1785 Connecticut Cent, large bust in armor, differs from any of the preceding; good and very scarce.

1518. 1786 Connecticut Cent, very large head facing left; fine, and a very rare type.

1519. 1786 Connecticut Cent, bust facing left; rev. does not bear the Liberty cap: fine, scarce.

1520. 1787 Connecticut Cent; uncirculated, rare.

1521. 1787 Connecticut Cent; obv. same; rev. different; nearly as fine as the last.

1522. 1787 Connecticut Cent, small head; a rare type, fine.

1523. 1787 Connecticut Cent, laureated head facing left; very fine, scarce.

1524. 1787 Connecticut Cent, resembles the common type, but different in execution; very fine.

1525. 1787 Connecticut Cent, bust in armor to left, goddess with peculiar head-dress; fine, scarce.

1526. 1787 Connecticut Cent, laughing head; very good.

1527. 1787 Connecticut Cent, doubly struck; very little circulated; unique.

1528. 1787 Connecticut Cent, goddess in costume, much resembling the "Bloomer style;" fine.

1529. 1787 Connecticut Cent; rev. "Et Lib. Inde;" fine, rare.

1530. 1787 Connecticut Cent, "Con*nfe*:" fair, rare.

1531. 1787 Connecticut Cent, "Auctori Connect;" uncirculated, and a very rare variety.

1532. 1788 Connecticut Cent; obv. with bust facing left, closely resembling the ordinary type of 1787: rev. goddess with flowing hair; shield with figures and inscription, "Indl et Lib.:" very fine indeed, scarcely touched by circulation.

1533. 1788 Connecticut Cent, fillet head facing left; rev. shield, less ornamented than the last; very fine, scarce.

1534. 1788 Connecticut Cent, laureated head facing right: bust in armor, fine.

1535. 1788 Connecticut Cent, bust in armor, head to left, "Inde. et" to the left of the goddess.

1536. 1788 Connecticut Cent, with figure on shield.

1537. Connecticut Cents, various dates, a selection of ten pieces, all different, from the Emery collection; all good, several in fine condition.

1538. 1787 Auctori Plebis; very fine indeed, and extremely rare.

1539. Another equally rare and almost as fine as the last; very seldom met with in such excellent condition.

1540. 1787 New York Doubloon,; obv. the sea, the sun rising over a range of mountains in the distance, the sun's rays covering the upper portion of the field; in the field below, the name of the artist "Brasher," "Nova * Eboraca * Columbia * Excelsior *;" rev. an eagle with United States shield; the upper portion of the eagle's right wing bears the initials "E. B.," the head of the eagle surrounded by thirteen stars, the whole encircled by a wreath of leaf work: "Unum * E *, Pluribus *, 1787 *." This beautiful piece in gold, the finest one of three known specimens, as rare and desirable as the 1804 Dollar, purchased for a larger sum than was ever before paid for an American Coin, is now for the first time offered for public competition.

1541. 1787 New York Cent, eagle with head surrounded by stars, "E Pluribus Unum;" rev. arms of the State, with the motto "Excelsior," eagle at the top facing left: fine, and extremely rare.

1542. 1787 New York Cent; obv. resembling the last, but the eagle is of larger size, and wholly different design; one marked peculiarity of this piece is that the positions of the olive branch and arrows are reversed; another is that the planchet is a size larger than any other variety: the rev. resembles that of the last, except that the eagle faces right. I have never been able to trace another of this variety of the Excelsior, and the piece, which is in very fine condition, I believe to be unique.

1543. 1787 New York Cent, Indian standing with bow and tomahawk, "Liber Natus Libertatem Defendo;" rev. arms and motto of the State; uncirculated, portions of the copper still bright, without doubt the finest existing specimen of this very rare coin.

1544. 1787 New York Cent, Liberty seated, "Immunis Columbia;" rev. eagle, "E Pluribus Unum;" very fine and rare.

1545. New York Cent, "Nova Eborac," figure facing right; perfectly uncirculated, so fine a one has never been offered for sale, in this condition, as rare as any of the New York Pieces.

1546. 1787 New York Cent, same variety; very good, may be called fine, but bears no comparison to the last.

1549. 1789 New York Cent, Mott's Jewellers' Token: splendid, uncirculated, original impression, very rare.

1550. 1789 New York Cent, Mott's Token, from a different die; original, as rare and nearly as fine as the last.

1551. 1789 New York Cent, Mott's Token; thin planchet, milled edge, bright, original, and very rare.

1552. 1789 New York Cent, Mott's Token: from the broken die; uncirculated, scarce.

1553. 1794 New York Cent, Talbot, Allum & Lee's Token; splendid proof impression, rare.

1554. 1795 New York Cent, Talbot, Allum & Lee's Token; fine proof impression, much rarer than the last.

1555. 1786 New Jersey Cent; small planchet, straight plough beam: uncirculated, rare in this condition.

1556 1786 New Jersey Cent: the plough very slender, horse's neck long; very fine.

1557. 1786 New Jersey Cent; plough much curved, small shield; fine.

50 1558. 1786 New Jersey Cent; plough very small, shield unusually small; very good. Burke

50 1559. 1786 New Jersey Cent; long plough and very broad shield; good. Burke

50 1560. 1786 New Jersey Cent; small plough with knobs on the handles, narrow shield; scarce. Burke

/00 1561. 1786 New Jersey Cent; high curved plough, small head and shield; nearly or quite uncirculated, rare. Burke

/00 1562. 1786 New Jersey Cent; plough long and much curved, band below the horse's head, shield small; uncirculated. Burke

50 1563. 1786 New Jersey Cent; plough nearly straight; fine. Burke

80 1564. 1786 New Jersey Cent, plough very small, and of curious construction; good, rare. Burke

/50 1565. 1787 New Jersey Cent; rev. bearing the date 1785; very fine, unique. Burke

/50 1566. 1787 New Jersey Cent; band, with knot below the horse's head, an arm holding the olive branch projects from the top of the shield; very fine, unique. Burke

85 1567. 1787 New Jersey Cent, large and tall plough; fine. Burke

/50 1568. 1787 New Jersey Cent, "E Pluribs," large planchet; fine and rare. Burke

/50 1569. 1787 New Jersey Cent; another variety of the E Pluribs; fine for this type. Burke

50 1570. 1787 New Jersey Cent, horse's head without ears; rare variety. Burke

200 1571. 1787 New Jersey Cent, large plough, "Nova Caeserita," probably struck over an English Halfpenny; fine, rare. Burke

85 1572. 1787 New Jersey Cent, knobs on the plough handles: very good. Smith

1578. 1788 New Jersey Cent.

1579. 1788 New Jersey Cent; entirely uncirculated, rare.

1580. 1788 New Jersey Cent, plough very long and low, horse's head facing left; fine for this rare variety.

1581. 1788 New Jersey Cent; another entirely distinct variety, with the horse's head to the left, finer and much rarer than the last, being scarcely ever met with.

1582. 1788 New Jersey Cent; the dog type with the small plough, and small horse's head; very fine, rare.

1583. 1788 New Jersey Cent: another variety of the dog type, with larger plough, as fine as the last: rare.

1584. 1788 New Jersey Cent; the horse's head has a flowing mane extending down to the plough, giving the piece a most singular appearance: very good and rare.

1585. 1788 New Jersey Cent; large plough and narrow shield: quite uncirculated, rare.

1586. 1788 New Jersey Cent; the horse's mane arranged parallel with his neck, a curious and very rare variety; fine, rare.

1587. 1788 New Jersey Cent; horse's head very small; fine.

1588. 1783 Nova Constellatio; U. S. in small type; remarkably fine, being entirely uncirculated, rare.

1589. 1783 Nova Constellatio; resembling the last, but from a different die, fine.

1590. 1783 Nova Constellatio; fine, rare.

1591. 1785 Nova Constellatio; U. S. in script type; very fine.

1592. 1785 Nova Constellatio; U. S. in script type; fine, rare.

1593. Fugio or Franklin Cent; obv. resembling the usual type; the rev. has in the centre the inscription, "We are one," occupying a very small space in the centre of a blazing sun, which is surrounded by an endless chain, the links of which bear the names of the original thirteen States. Several curious types of the Franklin Cent are known to exist, differing in a greater or less degree from the ordinary type, but this specimen, which is in fair condition, though by no means fine, is believed to be entirely unique, and is considered by the owner, one of the most interesting and desirable pieces in the whole collection.

10 1594. 1787 Fugio; blunt rays, poor, but a rare variety.

20 1595. 1778 Fugio, "United States," doubly struck, the links of the chain appearing on the obverse; bright original, perfectly uncirculated.

20 1596. 1787 Fugio, "States United:" bright uncirculated, original, as fine as the last.

20 1597. 1787 Fugio; original, very fine.

50 1598. 1787 Fugio, recently struck from the original die, very fine impression.

10 1600. 1723 Wood's Farthing; obv. of the Rosa Americana Half-Penny; scarce.

125 1601. 1794 Franklin Press Halfpenny,; bright and uncirculated, nearly proof, rare.

112 1602. 1794 Franklin Press Halfpenny; planchet a size smaller, as fine and rare as the last.

250 1603. Kentucky Token, "Our Cause is Just;" rev. pyramid of stars, with initials of the States, "E Pluribus Unum;" bright, nearly proof, rare.

275 1604. Kentucky Token, same design as the last, with lettered edge, proof impression, rare.

375 1605. Same as the two last, but on planchet nearly two sizes larger, and with milled or engrailed edge. This variety is said to be found in no other collection; if not unique, it is of the highest degree of rarity, fine proof.

425 1606. U. S. A. or Bar Cent, original, fine and rare.

20 1607. Columbia Farthings, a set of six pieces; very fine, scarce.

263 1608. 1796 Castorland Half-Dollar; splendid silver proof, scarce.

1609. 1781 North American Tokens; two pieces, fine.

100 1610. A Counterfeit Gold Coin: bearing the head of George III., struck by the Americans in 1777 for the accommodation of the British army, and in retaliation for their counterfeiting our paper money, copper, very fine, and extremely rare.

1611. 1786 Vermontensium Res Publica, nine trees; very fine and scarce.

1612. 1788 New Jersey Cent; Dog type, in this, the fourth variety differing wholly from the three formerly described, the plough extends nearly across the field of the coin; fine, and rarer than either of the others.

1613. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling, very large planchet, but with small tree, differing from any of the others, and one of the finest shillings in the sale, a rare variety.

GOLD COINS.

EAGLES.

1614. 1795 Very fine; uncirculated, scarce.

1615. 1796 Very fine indeed; almost proof, extremely rare.

1616. 1797 Small eagle reverse, four stars at the right; a splendid uncirculated piece, of the highest degree of rarity.

1617. 1797 Splendid, uncirculated, the reverse having a proof surface, the obverse hardly less fine; very scarce.

1618. 1798 Four stars facing, from the die of 1797; fine impression and extremely rare

1619. 1799 Splendid, uncirculated, scarcely less than proof; rare in this condition.

1620. 1800 Nearly as fine as the last: fine impression and beautiful surface; very scarce.

1621. 1801 Very fine indeed: uncirculated, scarce.

	1642.	1811	Splendid impression, uncirculated.
	1643.	1812	Nearly proof.
	1644.	1813	Very fine; uncirculated.
	1645.	1814	Fine and very scarce.
	1646.	1818	Very fine impression: rare.
	1647.	1820	Proof impression; extremely rare.
	1648.	1820	From different dies, both obverse and reverse; uncirculated, and as rare as the last.
	1649.	1825	Over 1824, proof impression; exceedingly rare, the first offered at public sale.

	1650.	1826	Splendid impression, nearly proof; exceedingly rare.
	1651.	1827	Equally fine with the last and still more rare, never having appeared before in any public sale.
	1652.	1829	Splendid proof, and of the highest rarity, but six known
	1653.	1831	Very fine indeed, and extremely rare, the first offered at public sale.
	1654.	1832	As fine and rare as the last.
	1655.	1833	Nearly proof; about as rare as the preceding.
	1656.	1834	The old type, a splendid impression, almost proof; extremely rare.
	1657.	1834	The old type, with motto, from a different die, there being a cross on the bar of the figure 4 in the date; this is the rarest of the two varieties.

QUARTER EAGLES.

	1658.	1796	Without stars, a very fine impression, but slightly touched by circulation: extremely rare.
	1659.	1802	Very fine indeed, having almost a proof surface; scarce.
	1660.	1802	As fine as the last; the rev. is from a different die; rare.
	1661.	1804	Splendid impression, almost proof; very scarce.
	1662.	1805	About as fine as the last; rare.
	1663.	1806	Very fine impression, scarcely at all circulated, of the highest rarity, not more than four or five known. The emission was so small that no record exists of their coinage.
	1664.	1807	Very fine, scarce.
	1665.	1808	Very fine, uncirculated, scarce.
	1666.	1824	Very fine and rare.

This piece is struck in gold, platinum and some lighter metal, by the ingenious combination of which the size and weight of the genuine piece are exactly preserved; the value of the gold at par is $5 50; extremely rare, being one of three known.

The following sets of "God Our Trust" patterns are all exceedingly rare. Of 1861 I have never been able to trace but two sets, and though more probably exist, they are certainly of the highest degree of rarity. Those of 1862 are less rare, though by no means common. Of 1863 it is said that only seven sets exist, and if any reliance whatever can be placed on the statements made at the Mint, it is certain that no more can be made, as the most positive assurance is given by the authorities there, that the obverse dies for all the several years are destroyed. The owner reserves the right, to sell all in one lot, in sets, or separately, as may be deemed advisable at the time of the sale.

1779. 1861 Half Dollar, "God Our Trust," on a scroll; splendid silver proof, of the utmost rarity.

1780. 1861 Half Dollar, "God our Trust," on a plain field; splendid silver proof, as rare as the last.

1793. 1863 Two Cents, head of Washington facing right, "God and Our Country;" rev. "United States of America." In the centre, "2 Cents," surrounded by a wreath; splendid copper proof, extremely rare.

1794. 1863 Two Cents; obv. shield surrounded by a wreath, with the motto "God Our Trust," above, and the date below; rev. same as the last; splendid copper proof as rare as the preceding.

1795. 1864 Cent, nickel size, struck in copper; brilliant proof, rare.

AMERICAN MEDALS—SILVER.

(The closing numbers refer to the size; where the weight is mentioned, it is by the avoirdupois standard, and as near as can be expressed in quarter ounces; the exact weight will, in most instances, be found to be a few grains more or less than that mentioned. They are all struck in pure silver, which is ten per cent. finer than coin.)

1796. Beautiful figure of Ceres seated, "United States Agricultural Society, MDCCCLII," the whole surrounded by a wreath; rev. "Awarded to," &c.; splendid proof rare in this metal, weight 4oz., 50.

1797. Bombardment of Fort Sumter, April 12, 13, 1861; rev. "To Maj. Robert Anderson, U. S. A., from the citizens of New York City, as a slight tribute to his patriotism," an oak wreath surrounds the inscription: splendid proof, only two or three struck in silver, weight 3½oz., 47.

1798. "New Jersey State Agricultural Society," Ceres standing, with emblems, Liberty, Industry, Plenty, &c.; rev. "Awarded to," &c., surrounded by a splendid wreath of fruit and flowers, "Industry brings Prosperity;" fine proof, rare, weight 3oz., 38.

"October 12, A.D. 1492," "Where Liberty dwells there is my Country;" rev. a rattlesnake coiled, on a scroll above, "Beware," "Columbian Order, instituted 1789." This fine and doubtless unique medal is considered by the owner as more valuable than any other in the sale, No. 1827 alone excepted.

Particular attention is asked to the two following medals, which for rarity and beauty are unsurpassed.

1826. A Medal struck in Holland in commemoration of the treaty between the United States and Dutch Governments: obv. Fame seated on a cloud, sustaining with her right hand the Shields of the United States and Holland: under the Shields appears the head of a lion, "Faustissimo Foedere Junctæ Die vii.Octob. MDCCLXXXII;" rev. a pyramid wreathed with flowers, on a scroll in front the inscription, "Prodromus." Mercury holding the Caduceus in one hand, and a wreath in the other, appears flying through the air to crown with laurel a crowned shield which leans against the pyramid, ships in the distance, one of which flies the American flag; in the foreground a basket of flowers and an anchor, on the stock of which a crowing cock may be seen, "Justitiam Et Non Temnere Divos." This splendid proof medal is known in but one American collection.

1827. Another medal struck in Holland at the same period as the last; obv. three figures standing, the middle one a warrior, armed and in armor, his right hand grasping the hand of America, personified by an Indian standing with sceptre and broken shackles beneath her feet, supporting with her left hand a shield, inscribed De Ver Eenig De Staaten Van Noord America; the figure at the right represents Great Britain, who stooping forward offers to America the olive branch; at her right hand the War Dog crouches with fangs and teeth displayed, he is apparently prevented from springing forward by the hand of the warrior, which motions him back; the left hand of Great Britain supports a shield, inscribed Groot Brittangen; at the feet of England appears coiled a snake in the grass, an emblem then and now peculiarly suggestive; above all Mercury appears flying from a cloud above, with a halo of light below, to place on the head of America the cap of Liberty: rev. a hand appears issuing from a cloud, sustaining the crown and shield of Holland, below, the following inscription, Aande Staaten Van Friesland Ter Dankbaare Nagedachtenisse Vande Landsdagen in Febr. en Apr. MDCCLXXXII. Toegewyd Door de Burger Societeit Door Vryheid en Yver te Leeuwarden. This medal, of exquisite workmanship, is as rare as the preceding and the owner deems it more valuable than any medal which he has ever before had the pleasure of offering.

1828. A singular star-shaped Medal, the general design being a sun with two swords crossed through the centre, within the rays, on a circular field appears a figure of St. George and the Dragon. "Cassis tutissima Virtus:" rev. "Fide et Amicitia." The medal of the K. S. T., a society instituted in Boston in 1809. These medals have not been struck for many years, and this one, which once before appeared in a sale, was supposed to be English. Probably another one cannot be found in America; splendid proof, 33.

1829. Obv. similar to the last; rev. has the engraved inscription, "Rifle Rangers, Raymond Cole first shot, Aug. 15, 1833." Raymond Cole died in Boston several years since. This medal is, of course, unique proof, 33.

1830. Another Prize medal, presented to Raymond Cole, on the 8th of June, 1832, different from the last, but equally fine, unique, 33.

1831. A very curious medal, representing a heart within a heart, on one side hands clasped, W. P. A. above, the date 1809 below: rev. the same design, heart within heart, and hand in hand, A. C. above, 1813 below, with silver loop; very fine, unique, 45.

WASHINGTON PIECES.

The closing numbers refer to the size.

2236. Washington before Boston, by Duvivier; fine impression from the original dies, very rare, found in but few collections, bronze, 48.

2237. Same as the last, but the reverse is from a die cut to replace the original; fine bronze proof, scarce, 48

2238. Bust of very fine workmanship: rev. Indian standing, "The Land was ours," &c. The Eccleston Medal, bronze, very fine and scarce, 51.

2239. The Cabinet Medal, by Paquet; bronze proof, 40.

2240. Same as the last; splendid proof, in silver, weight more than 3 oz., 40.

2241. A fine copy of the large Washington Medal, by C. C Wright; rev. Declaration of Independence. This superb copy of Wright's finest medal is equal in beauty to the original, 60

2243. Busts of Washington, Kosciusko and Lafayette; rev. wreaths and inscription: bronze, very fine and rare, 34.

2244. Lovett's Medal of Washington, head facing right; rev., Minerva seated; splendid bronze proof, 36.

2245. Same as the last, in tin, equally fine, 36.

2246. The Manley Medal, military bust to left, "George Washington, Natus," &c.; rev. inscription: fine proof, in bronze, very rare, 32.

2247. Manley Medal, obv. has "Washington, Born," &c.: rev. like the last; bronze, fine, 32.

2248. Same as the last, in tin, probably a cast, 32.

2249. Military bust facing left, surrounded by names of the Presidents from Washington to Jackson, and in an inner circle the name of Lafayette; rev. eagle, with shield and scroll, "All men are created free and equal:" tin, very fine and scarce, 34.

2250. Bust to right, within a panel, surrounded by eagle, stars, scroll work, &c.; rev. view of the Washington Statue in Union Square; silver proof, very scarce, 33

2255. Washington Half Dollar or Medal: obv. bust of Washington facing left, "Geo. Washington, born Va., Feb. 11, 1732;" rev. "General of the American Armies, 1775, Resigned 1783, President of the U. S. 1789," in ten parallel lines. This fine piece in silver, one of the most interesting and desirable of the Washington

Series, equals in rarity the New York Doubloon or the 1804 Dollar, 22.

2256. Washington Half-Dollar, on a very large planchet; obv. "G. Washington, President I, 1792;" rev eagle with upraised wings, fifteen stars. "United States of America;" the obv. though considerably worn, is in every portion distinct, and, as is usual, from all the coins struck from this die, the reverse impression is much the best. It is, altogether, one of the most desirable pieces in the sale; extremely rare, 24.

2257. Washington Cent, 1792, from the same die as the last; a magnificent specimen, perfectly uncirculated, portions of the copper still remaining bright, remarkably fine, not only as regards condition, but impression; exceedingly rare, 23.

2258. Washington Cent, 1791, small eagle, perfectly uncirculated; fine, almost proof surface, portions of which still retain the original brightness of the copper; very rare, 20.

2259. Washington Cent, 1791, large eagle, original; fine, rare, 20.

2260. Same as the last, without letters on the edge; in fine condition, and an excessively rare variety, 20.

2261. Military bust facing left, "Washington, President, 1792;" the obv. of this piece is from the same die as the very rare Washington Cent with the semi-circle of stars above the head of the eagle: rev. inscription in ten parallel lines. This piece is excessively rare, and in condition equal to the one which in my last sale brought $31.00, 20.

2262. Military bust to left, "Geo. Washington, born in Virginia, Feb. 11, 1732;" as fine and rare as the preceding, 20.

2263. Obv. of the small Eagle Cent of 1791; rev. ship, "Halfpenny, 1793;" very fine, scarce, 20.

2264. Washington Grate Cent; copper proof, scarce, 19. . . . . .

The four following pieces constitute a set of Bridgen's Washington medal. The medal has never been restruck; they are all originals, and very scarce.

Country;" rev. hands clasped, "United we stand, divided we fall;" tin, fine and extremely rare, 22.

2266. Obv. same; rev. wreath, &c.; tin proof, very rare, 22.

2267. Obv. same; rev. Liberty seated, feeding an eagle; "Liberty and Independence;" tin, almost proof, 22.

2268. Obv. same as rev. of the last: rev. a wreath, "Reward of Merit;" tin proof, 22.

2269. Military bust, "George Washington, President, 1789:" rev. large spread eagle; copper proof, 22.

2270. Bust to left, "George Washington, First in war, First in peace;" rev. inscription in nine lines: copper proof, 23.

2271. Same as the last; brass proof, scarce, 23.

2272. Same in tin, proof, 23.

2273. Idler's copy of the Washington Half Dollar, in copper, very fine. Considerable labor has been spent on this piece to give it the appearance of an original, 23.

2274. Same in brass, proof, rare, 23.

2275. Same in tin, proof, 23.

2276. Naked bust, "George Washington;" rev. "Born," &c.: silver proof, rare, 21.

2277. Same in copper, proof, 21.

2278. Same in tin, proof, 21.

2279. Obv. same; rev. Card of Edward Cogan; splendid copper proof, 21.

2281. Same in brass, proof, 21.

The sixty-six lots following constitute a series struck by Mr. Emery for his private collection, from a set of dies owned by him, but now destroyed; they are all of extreme rarity. I am at this moment unable to say whether more than two sets exist, but am positive the number does not exceed five. They are all brilliant proofs, size 21, and as the degree of rarity is sufficiently indicated by the statement here made, only the shortest possible description will be given of each. They were very highly prized by their former owner, and would certainly be an ornament to any collection.

2282. Head within a wreath; rev. "Mount Vernon, the home of Washington;" copper.

2283. Same in brass.

25 2360. The Allegiance Medal, by Paquet: bronze proof, 20.

The obverse of each one of the ten following lots is a head of Washington within a panel, surrounded by a circle of spears and shields: they are all beautiful proofs in silver, size 18, and rare, the dies having been destroyed after striking a few sets. The reverse of each is the view of a building, and inscription, as follows:

175 2361. "No. 1. Headquarters at Harlem, N. Y., 1776."

175 2362. "No. 2. " at White Plains, 1776."

175 2363. "No. 3. " near Chad's Ford, Pa., 1777."

2364. "No. 4, Headquarters at White Marsh, Pa., 1777."

2365. "No. 5, " at Valley Forge, Pa., 1778--78."

2366. "No. 6, " at Tappan, N. J., 1778."

2367. "No. 7, " at Morristown, N. J., 1779."

2368. "No 8, " at Suffrens, N. Y , 1780."

2369. "No. 9, " near Dobb's Ferry, N. Y., 1781."

2370. "No. 10, " at Newburgh, N. Y , 1783."

2371. A set similar to the last, but the obverses from a different die, the panel being surrounded by a circle of scroll-work and stars: copper proofs, scarce, 10 pieces, 18.

2372. Another set from the same dies as the last; all fine proofs, in brass, rare in this metal, as only a few sets were struck, 10 pieces, 18.

2373. Another set in tin, the obv. die of No. 4, the same as that used in making the last two sets, the others are from a different die, wholly unlike any of the preceding, the surrounding circle being composed of shields and stars. After the sale of this set in the McCoy collection in May last, I was informed that it was the only one existing from these dies in this metal. If not unique, the set is certainly very rare, 18.

2374. Obv. same as the last set; rev. "Headquarters at Harlem;" very rare with this reverse, copper proof, 18, 2375. Obv. same; rev. another head of Washington: copper proof, excessively rare, 18.

52 50 2395. Washington Funeral medal, bust within a wreath, "He is in glory, the world in tears;" rev. urn, inscribed "G.W.," and surrounded by inscription; gold, very fine and of the highest rarity, 20. Willet

10 50 2396. Same as the last: splendid proof impression in silver, rare, 20. Emery

2 00 2397. Same in tin, very fine and scarce, 20. Thame

14 25 2398. Obv. same: rev. has skull and cross bones, a very fine specimen from the McCoy collection; much rarer than the other variety, 20. Levick

4 50 2399. Curious full-length figure of Washington, in very high relief, with sword in one hand and scroll in the other, "The Founder of Union, 1776:" rev. "A decisive war only can restore peace and prosperity, 1861:" tin, very fine and excessively rare, 17. Appleton

2 00 2400. "Victory to Union, Down with treason and rebellion, 1891;" rev. like the last; tin proof, very rare, 17. Appleton

13 25 2401. Washington on horseback, "George Washington, Bale & Smith, N. Y.;" rev. "Carry me to Atwood's:" splendid bronze proof, very rare, 17. Levick

20 50 2402. Obv. same; rev. Card of Bale & Smith, Engravers, Die Cutters, &c.;" splendid bronze proof, much rarer than the preceding, 17. Levick 2403. Trial proof impression from the obv. die of the foregoing pieces; brilliant proof in copper, probably unique, 17.

2404. Similar to the last, a good impression but not proof; in copper, unique, being on a planchet, size 14.

2405. Beautiful little head, surrounded by an oak wreath; rev. card of Wright and Bale; copper proof, very rare, 12.

2406. Obv. same as the last; rev. card of Henderson and Lossing; copper proof, much rarer than the preceding, 12.

2407. Head of Washington within a panel, card of Wolfe, Clarke, and Spies; rev. military bust within an oval; silver-plated, very rare, and one of the finest known, 17.

2408. Obv. same as the last; rev. same, with inscription outside the panel; brass, very fine and very rare, 17.

The following medals, forty-two in number, splendid proofs in silver, are all unique, having been struck for the private collection of Mr. Emery, who owned the dies. The dies are now destroyed. They constitute a beautiful and very interesting set. The whole series will be offered in one lot at a starting bid of $175.00. If this sum is not offered for the lot they will be sold separately.

2409. Obv. head within a wreath; rev. "The home of Washington, Mount Vernon," 21.

2410. Obv. same; rev. Washington's Headquarters at Tappan," 21.

DEALER IN

AMERICAN & FOREIGN

COINS, MEDALS AND TOKENS.

Constantly on hand a great variety of

WASHINGTONS, COLONIALS, PATTERN PIECES,

AND THE

REGULAR ISSUES OF THE UNITED STATES MINT.

Having always on hand a large collection of Coins, most ordinary pieces, and many of great rarity, can be furnished to order.

Parcels of coins forwarded for examination and selection, to parties known to me, or furnishing suitable references.

Large or small collections purchased for cash, at liberal prices.

At the present time a fine collection wanted of the value of from three thousand to ten thousand dollars.

Cabinets arranged and catalogued; collections prepared for sale by auction or otherwise; auction sales attended in New York, Boston and Philadelphia, and purchases made for the usual commission.

Correspondence solicited with all who wish to buy, sell, or exchange coins.

Priced, and priced and named Catalogues furnished to order, of all the principal Coin sales ever held in the country.

A few copies of the John Allan catalogue for sale, priced in full, $5, with prices and purchasers' names, $10.

Early-printed, rare, or curious American Books wanted; also, Local Histories, and books relating to WASHINGTON.

For any of which a reasonable price will be paid, or a liberal exchange given in books or coins. For the purpose of exchanging, I have purchased the balance of the editions of several scarce books, and have besides had printed at the Riverside and Munsell presses, limited editions of several valuable works.
